HE WAS DECEIVED.

Justice Giegrich and a jury yesterday in New York listened to the particulars of a $50,000 breach of promise suit brought by Miss Bertha Robinson, of Chicago, against David Weisenberger, of New York city. The plaintiff, who is twenty-two and pretty, as Chicago girls go, alleged that during the year beginning January, 1894, Weisenberger wooed, won and made arrangements to marry her. The wedding was set for May of that year. Miss Robinson, in her complaint, alleged that she spent $800 for her trousseau, and stood ready to marry David, but that, through no fault of hers, he failed to keep his promise. Why he did fail is a matter of some dispute. In his answer to the complaint Weisenberger acknowledged having agreed to the marriage, but set up the somewhat novel defense that he was induced to do so through fraud and misrepresentation upon the part of his fiancée. He admits that at the time of the engagement he was, and is still, a single man free to marry, but since the engagement he discovered, he alleges, that Miss Robinson had misrepresented the social status of herself and family, declaring that her father was dead, and that she moved in the best circles of Chicago society, and that all her relatives were respectable people.

Subsequent to the engagement, and prior to the date fixed for the wedding, Weisenberger alleged that he discovered the plaintiff's father was alive, having obtained a divorce from the plaintiff's mother; also, that he was a gambler and intemperate; furthermore, that the plaintiff's uncle, Abraham Robinson, had been indicted for the crime of arson, and while under arrest had committed suicide in jail.

Weisenberger also alleges that while he was at Hot Springs for his health the doctors advised him not to marry. The case is still on.

AN AGED VOTER.—Unless something at present unforeseen should happen in the interim between now and the election day, St. Louis will, on November 3, have the distinction of claiming as one of her citizens a man who has participated in the election of twenty-two Presidents of the United States. The gentleman who has this distinguished claim to fleeting fame is W. J. "Jack" Haynes, an inmate of the Memorial Home on Grand and Magnolia avenues.

When Mr. Haynes registered at the polls in his precinct last Tuesday, and told the judges his age, the election officials nearly had a fit. Mr. Haynes was born in 1787 and is a trifle over 100 years of age. As is natural with a man who has had his eyes open so long a time, Mr. Haynes is an enthusiastic advocate of the Jeffersonian principles of democracy, and intends to vote the straight winning ticket for Bryan and the free coinage of silver. Mr. Haynes' patriarchal and venerable appearance, with his silvery hair and beard, is a constant reminder to the frisky youngsters of seventy and eighty, in the home, of the predominant issue in this campaign. He is a very well-preserved old man, despite his heavy years, and he declares that it will require a greater physical ratio than sixteen republicans to prevent his one vote from helping to swell Bryan's plurality in this city.

Mr. Haynes is a veteran of the battle of New Orleans and of the civil war. He is an old river engineer, and was in charge of a gunboat on the lower Mississippi during the rebellion. He has been an inmate of the home about three years.—St. Louis Republic.

THE DISCOVERY SAVED HIS LIFE.

Mr. G. Caillette, Druggist, Beaversville, Ill., says: "To Dr. King's New Discovery I owe my life. Was taken with La Grippe and tried all the physicians for miles about, but of no avail and was given up and told I could not live. Having Dr. King's New Discovery in my store I sent for a bottle and began its use and from the first dose began to get better, and after using three bottles was up and about again. It is worth its weight in gold. We don't keep store or house without it." Get a free trial at E. L. Allen's Drug Store.

Mrs. Rhodie Noah, of this place, was taken in the night with cramping pains and the next day diarrhoea set in. She took half a bottle of blackberry cordial but got no relief. She then sent me to see if I had anything that would help her. I sent her a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy and the first dose relieved her. Another of our neighbors had been sick for about a week and had tried different remedies for diarrhoea but kept getting worse. I sent him the same remedy. Only four doses of it were required to cure him. He says he owes his recovery to this wonderful medicine.—Mrs. Mary Sibley, Sidney, Mich. For sale by L. Stabler & Co., Druggists.

If your child is puny, fretful, troubled with glandular swellings, inflamed eyes, or sores on the head, face, or body, a course of Ayer's Sarsaparilla is needed to expel the scrofulous humors from the blood. The sooner you begin to give this medicine the better.

APPEAL TO FARMERS.

The executive committee of the Trades Unionists Silver Club, of Chicago, with the approval of the democratic national committee, has addressed an appeal to the farmers and agricultural laborers of Illinois and of the Mississippi valley.

The document calls Mark Hanna an "Industrial Cannibal," who has endeavored to secure the purchasable vote "which always exists in great centers of population by the lavish and corrupt use of money, and to array that vote against the interests of the agriculturalists."

Coercion of the incorruptible wage earners in the cities is also freely charged. It is admitted that "these conditions create a menace to the cause we have at heart," and hence the appeal to the farmers to redouble their efforts to make the agricultural vote of the Mississippi valley, "as large as possible for the free silver," "to make good any possible loss of votes which may result from coercion and bribery." The Trades Unionists say they refuse to "listen to all appeals which would set us against you, our fellow-workmen."
